This OSH Alert is issued as a reminder to employers, that OSHA requires the electronic submission of Calendar Year 2019's occupational injury & illness data (the data you log onto the OSHA Form 300A) no later than March 2, 2020.

You may follow the link provided above to the application at OSHA's website which will facilitate your company's individual electronic submissions.

For those employers who have not, for whatever reason, filed the appropriate Employer Identification Number with past electronic submissions, you have until January 2, 2020 to do so. That, too, can be accomplished through the link found above.

For those wishing a quick link to OSHA's Electronic Submission standards, we provide it here: <https://www.osha.gov/laws-regs/regulations/standardnumber/1904/1904.41>
